

2014 Water Quality Series

Presents:

Clean Water, More Valuable than Oil: Current State Actions Affecting Your Water

A community public education forum

Wednesday, June 18, 2014

Doors open and registration 6:00 pm

Event 6:30-8:30 pm

NCSU McKimmon Center

1101 Gorman Street, Raleigh 27606

Pre-registration is encouraged but not required.

To pre-register, or for more information, visit:

www.wakeupwakecounty.org

Free and open to the public.

Agenda

State of Water Quality in North Carolina

Amy Pickle: Duke Nicholas Institute of Environmental Policy Solutions

Threats to Triangle's Drinking Water and Proposed Solutions

Dr. JoAnn Burkholder: NCSU

State Actions Affecting Water Quality

Peter Raabe: American Rivers

Panel Discussion: How does regulation of water quality affect jobs and the economy?

Special thanks to our sponsors!

American Rivers

NC Conservation Network

River Guardian Foundation

Sierra Club Capital Group

Southern Environmental Law Center

The City of Raleigh
PUBLIC UTILITIES DEPARTMENT

SERVING

Garner | Knightdale | Raleigh | Rolesville
Wake Forest | Wendell | Zebulon

SMITHMOORE
LEATHERWOOD
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

WasteZero

STYERS &
KEMERAIT
attorneys+counselors@law

For questions, contact Jennifer Dean:
jennifer@wakeupwakecounty (812) 584-8151